THIRD EDITION, price 5s.

FLORM'S FEMST:

A Masgue of Flowers.

Penned and Pictured by WALTER CRANE.

With FORTY PAGES OF PICTURES, handsomely reproduced in Colours.

"The pictures are all charming. . . . This is the prettiest book we have seen this Christmas."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"There is a long and splendid spectacle in the forty illustrations."—
Athenæum.

"This is a charming bit of fancy, of which we feel quite unable to give any adequate description in words. The Snowdrops are accoutred like warriors, with the bell-like flowers ingeniously adapted for helmets; the Crocus is holding up his yellow cup flower; the Daffodils are cleverly fashioned with huntsman's horns; Violet and Primrose are two charmingly-attired sisters; and the rustic 'Maid Marsh Marigold,' with a lamb at her side, is gay in gold and green. And so the poet-artist goes through the year, with Roses of the garden and of the hedgerow; Lilies, 'pale and proud,' or 'burning like an orange flame,' till at the end of the long procession we come to the Christmas Rose. Mr. Crane's skill with the pencil, graceful fancy, and tender and harmonious colouring, have never found a more adequate expression than in this charming volume."—Spectator.
